

SONOMA SOLDIER DIES IN CAMP

Abramo Marcucci Is Victim of Pneumonia At Army Camp in Virginia.

Abramo Marcucci, 26 years old, son of A. Marcucci of Agua Caliente and who was inducted into the service of the National Army last spring and had been at Camp Alexander, Virginia, died of pneumonia there according to the sad news received by his father on Tuesday. Marcucci was a splendid young specimen of manhood and the picture of health when he left here to do his patriotic duty. He was formerly at Camp Fremont and before his leaving for the Atlantic coast, came home to see his folks and was given a fine farewell dinner by his sister, Mrs. Wm. Church of Schellville.

After reaching the port of embarkation, Bramo started for France and was five days on the ocean when the armistice was signed and his ship ordered to return to the United States.

On the service flag of the community is another golden star and the memory of this sterling young man will ever awaken reverence in the hearts of every true American who looks upon our emblem of the great war. To the father, sisters and brothers every sympathy is extended in their loss and the home coming of the silent form in its flag draped casket will be a sad day indeed throughout the Valley of the Moon.

THE BOSSE WILL HAS BEEN FILED

Local Friends, Relatives and Charities Bequeathed Estate of Late Capitalist.

The will of Christian C. Bosse, which was made and written entirely by the hand of deceased last April, was filed by the executor and attorney, Messrs Geo H. Mastick and John S. Partridge, at Santa Rosa this week. Mr. Mastick of Alameda was named executor to serve without bonds. While the will itself does not show the exact value of the estate, it is said to be very valuable, those acquainted with the former Hawaiian resident's affairs declaring that next to A. E. Tower of Buena Vista, deceased was the wealthiest man in this locality.

An interesting phase of the probate proceedings will be the determining of the exact amount willed to German charities. In case more than a third of the estate has been devised to charity, the bequest will be invalidated. According to the laws of the State of California, not more than a third can go to charities and money in excess of this amount will then be divided among the heirs at law, his relatives. As no specific charities are mentioned by the legatee, there may be many claimants and consequently legal complications before the estate can be finally settled.

The will in part reads as follows: "To my mother, Marie Bosse, if alive at the time of my death, last time heard from was a resident of Bremen, Germany, I leave the sum of $30,000 or in the event of her death before mine, the $30,000 to go to my cousins, Sophie and Fritz Hagerdorn of Bremen, Germany and my niece and nephew, Johan and Wm. Bosse, both residing out of this state. To A. F. Hopke and wife of Sonoma, $20,000; also to Mrs. L. Quartaroli of Sonoma, a promissory note in my favor for $5,000; also to Mrs. L. E. Buzzini of Susan, a note for $5,500. After my securities and real estate have been disposed of, debts and bequests paid, I direct my executor to turn over the remainder of my estate to such institutions in Germany that will dispense funds for the sufferers in consequence of the terrible war now raging."

The Hopkes, who are wealthy vineyardists residing here were close friends of the late capitalist, Mr. Hopke having been acquainted with Bosse in the Islands.

The other small bequests were the result of business transactions, deceased having generously waived all obligation in both matters.

Sebastiani Now Has the Sole Control of Cannery and Will See That Rigid Inspection of Tomatoes Will Prevent Loss Next Season

A $3,000 loss on puree tomatoes condemned by the State Food Inspectors because of the use of frosted and wet tomatoes, has caused Sonoma's big new industry to take steps to prevent repetition of the unfortunate occurrence and has led to Mr. Sebastiani becoming sole owner and manager, that he may personally supervise and be responsible for all goods put out from his plant. The food authorities will cooperate with him and Sebastiani has arranged with them to send an inspector here who will be on the job all season. The recent trouble came about through the acceptance from growers of tomatoes which were not perfect and they developed a higher percentage of bacteria than is permitted in puree by the inspectors. None but the finest tomatoes went into the solid pack or first grade goods and all this was pronounced A. 1.

Warning during the canning season given to the superintendent and foreman in regard to the quality of the puree, were evidently not heeded, nor was Mr. Sebastiani informed by them. Of the inspectors visit at that time to take samples of the foodstuffs, Sebastiani believed everything was being handled in a satisfactory manner or he would have promptly taken steps to remedy the trouble.

$12,415.94 was the profits of the season as reported by Mr. Sebastiani. Of this amount, P. Quartaroli, who was formerly associated with Sebastiani, took $4,138.64. In addition to his share of the profits which would have been greater but for the $3,000 loss on condemned goods, Mr. Sebastiani has given Mr. Quartaroli $500 for releasing him from the agreement into which they first entered. Sebastiani speaks in high terms of the food inspectors and they expressed themselves as satisfied with Sebastiani's intent to do the right thing and found his attitude such that every aid will be given him the coming season so the Sonoma Valley produce will be second to none in purity and fine quality. No expense was spared in the beginning and none will be now in making the Sebastiani cannery, first class and conforming to every requirement.

The highest wages will be paid and Mr. Sebastiani will pay top prices to the farmers from whom he will buy direct. He refused to enter into an agreement with the association, but will pay the best figure which growers can get anywhere for tomatoes.

BELLE SPINDLER FILES ANSWER TO HUSBAND

Another chapter was added to the divorce action of Charles Spindler against Belle Spindler, Thursday, when an answer to the defendant's cross-complaint was filed by attorneys W. A. Cockrill and W. N. Valandigham. The case has been in court for some months and promises to be very warmly contested as considerable property is involved in the suit. W. F. Cowan represents the defendant. —Santa Rosa Republican.

FINE SHIPMENT OF BARRED PLYMOUTH ROCK CHICKENS

One of the finest shipments of high class chickens which have gone out of Sonoma valley for many a day was sent to San Francisco during the holidays by Chas. Nivet of "Arrah na Pogue" El Verano. The fowl were the Barred Plymouth Rock of fine strain and the sixty handsome birds shipped from El Verano commanded lots of attention and brought a very remunerative price to Mr. and Mrs. Nivet who raised them on their attractive country place. The "Arrah na Pogue" chickens are of immense size and bear all the marks of aristocrats of the feathered flock.

CAMILLIO ACQUISTAPACE DIES FROM PNEUMONIA

Camillio, eldest son of Mrs. Anna Acquistapace of Agua Caliente, died of influenza and pneumonia Thursday night. He had been sick nine days and although he received the best of care from a trained nurse and his mother, and the best of medical attention, he succumbed to the dread malady.

Mrs. Acquistapace has had much trouble and the death of her 18 year old son has brought her great sorrow. The funeral will take place tomorrow (Sunday) from St. Francis church.

Mrs. Perle Erasmus went down to San Francisco this week to attend the funeral of Major Bourchier of the Coast Artillery who died at Fort Winfield Scott. He was an old time friend of Mrs. Erasmus and her late husband. Upon the death of Mr. Erasmus, he came up to "Crescent Acres" and made all the arrangements for the funeral of his quarter-master sergeant friend.

HER GRANDSON AT THE RHINE

Neal Dodge With American Army From Start to Finish.

Mrs. Mary L. Carter has received word from her grandson, Sergeant N. E. Dodge as follows:
Hello Dear Grandmother:

Am having the time of my life here in this beautiful city of Luxembourg. The people here have shown us the very essence of hospitality and have entertained us so much that I am almost dead for sleep. Have been out with some of the people every minute that I was not working, and Oh! what a pleasure it is to be in a city that is clean and intact, to be able to clean up and stay clean. We arrived in this city on the 22nd. We were at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, Argonne Forest and the Meuse. We are now with the headquarters of the 3rd Army. Heretofore we have been with the 1st Corps. Am working a powerful Radio Station now from 12:30 midnight to 6:30 a. m. And now comes the honor of going to Coblentz on the Rhine and then—? Hope to start for home.

GLEN ELLEN CLUBDOM

The Glen Ellen Women's Club held its annual meeting Jan. 10, for election of officers. Mrs. Gordonker was elected president; Mrs. Chas. Lane, vice president; Mrs. C. J. Poppe, treasurer; Mrs. E. Shepard, recording secretary; Mrs. J. H. Weise, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Weise Mrs. Cromwell and Mrs. McCartney, trustees.

The ladies are planning to have again two meetings a month, the second Friday for business and the fourth Friday a social meeting. The next social meeting, Jan. 24 will be a memorial meeting for Jack London, as his birthday is Jan. 12th. They have arranged for a nice and interesting program and as Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Henderson are on the refreshments committee, good "eats" are guaranteed. Everyone is invited to come and learn many interesting things about the late author.

The ladies are also planning a drive for new members. Many of the old members have moved away and left the club membership small. With the New Year resolution to do good work for the club this year, the ladies adjourned to meet Jan. 24th.

BOARD OF HEALTH TAKES ACTION

Influenza Flare Up Causes Authorities To Close Schools and Put Ban On All Public Gatherings.

Owing to a noticeable flare-up in influenza cases and, of various types, the local Board of Health has decided to close the schools and to prohibit all public gatherings until further notice.

At the High School there was a growing falling off in attendance until on Thursday, almost 20 students were absent. At the Grammar School where on Monday last, only 8 out of 206 were missing in the enrollment, 35 were noted absent by Thursday.

Following is the announcement as given out by F. T. Duhring, chairman of the local Health Board:

"In order to prevent a further spread of the influenza, the Board of Health has decided that all schools, churches, lodges, theatres, pool rooms, clubs, dances and all public gatherings be closed or meetings suspended until further notice.

All people, large and small are urged to remain at home."

STUDENT GARDNERS A SUCCESS

Roy Hagan of U. C. boys agricultural club leader, was here this week and predicts renewed interest and enthusiasm in school garden army work.

The percentage of students who made good on their gardens all over the United States was 48 per cent of those who started. In California, 58 per cent and in Sonoma Valley 95 per cent, which shows good soil and stamina here.

$38,000 worth of extra food-stuffs were raised by the school workers in California last season.

A fine agricultural film was shown at the High School this week and the Grammar school students of the 7th and 8th grades were invited to see it also.

Mrs. Maggie Walker, who was formerly Maggie Humphries of a pioneer Sonoma family, died recently in San Jose of influenza. She left a young daughter to mourn her.

A sister, Mrs. Thomas Lewis, (Alice Humphries) formerly taught in our Grammar school.

B. F. Keechler purchased this week a registered Holstein Friesian bull. The dam and sire's dam have not only large yearly records for butterfat, but also milk tests unusually high.

Mrs. Charmian London has returned from San Francisco where she went for the holidays and was taken down with the influenza. She is now convalescent.

Irving Shepard is not to come home as anticipated but will sail for Constantinople, Turkey, with supplies for war sufferers. Irving, now just 19 years of age is chief store-keeper on the big U. S. boat.

The Honors of the Presidential Trip Abroad

THE TRIBUTE paid to president Wilson by the rulers and peoples of the great countries overseas which our chief executive has visited, is the expressed sentiment of our friends and admirers overseas toward the American people. Wilson himself has made this point emphatic and he has, with characteristic humility and unassuming candor, relegated the ego to the background in all his speeches and wherever he has publicly appeared. While there is undoubted admiration for the man who is our elected representative, it is a penalty of democracy that a president like the "rain-bows lovely form" vanishes at the breath of the political wind which makes and unmakes White House Chiefs and that the United States itself is that to which abiding love, honor and tribute of every kind must necessarily be addressed. The nations over there are thoroughly cognizant of this and have seen in President Wilson and his sentiment all that is noble and heroic in our people, their ideals and their realities. It is indeed fortunate however that we have had so intelligent and inspiring a leader to express our inmost purpose toward the countries in which we are so deeply interested and with some of whom we have become identified in the greatest and most forward looking work of the age.

In England with all the traditional trappings with which the noble august and distinguished of all ages have been ceremoniously greeted, the people of the United States were paid tribute through our president. England spoke its heart and acclaimed honor to every citizen of this broad land in the reception accorded President Wilson.

In France, where already every American had been lauded and every soldier given affectionate salutation, it was perhaps more easy to grasp that the heart of France went out to the President only as official representative of the great nation which through the Yanks themselves had already ingratiated themselves into the affections of the republic.

In Italy, where fortitude, hardship and high courage reached during the recent war a crest of heroism almost unparalleled in history, it was a remarkable recognition of the part which America played in the great conflict to witness the tremendous ovation which the presidential party was accorded. Behold at the dawn of the 20th. century the old world of Columbus grasping the hand of the land discovered by the intrepid navigator 500 years ago. The lusty children of the new continent were hailed by the hallowed dwellers of history's most precious background. How Wilson the scholar and thinker must have revered a people who had merited such homage. No moving picture of his triumphal trip through glorious Rome and its tributary country can ever tell the story of the feelings which must have welled up in his heart as he stood in the presence of the 11 mayors of Italy's famed cities, when he was made a citizen of some of their great centers, as he came into the presence of Pope Benedict at the Vatican and at other crucial moments. The United States made possible all the supreme experiences to this first citizen of the land and it is a satisfaction to all of us that we have been thus honored and that as a people we have had so remarkable and distinguished a personage to represent the nation abroad during this great epoch preceding the Peace Conference.

The Knocker Raps Sonoma Industry

IN HIS ACCUSTOMED style and with his usual disregard for the interest of Sonoma Valley, the Expositor comes out this week and knocks another Sonoma enterprise and sounds the praises of the state food inspectors.

Instead of encouraging our local industries and having some regard for capital invested here, the peanut roaster again exhibits its puerile state of mind which is all caused by the fact that it could get no business from the new industrial enterprise, its owner refused absolutely to patronize a sheet which has persistently knocked our resorts, our wine and vineyard industry and has never in any sense merited the support of the business people of Sonoma Valley.

The Index-Tribune does not condone violation of the food laws or any other laws, but in the case of a new and inexperienced industrial enterprise where there was no intent to dump anything inferior on the market or no evidence of greed or exploitation, consideration by Sonoma newspapers is the least that could be expected. Let us foster, encourage and aid Sonoma business enterprise instead of knocking it. If those who enforce the laws, enforce them in food or other matters, the public will be amply protected. Nothing is to be gained by a local paper jumping in and condemning its own town's enterprises.

How long are the people of Sonoma Valley going to tolerate it?

Compensate Vineyardists

COMPENSATE the vineyardists by all means since the dastardly deed of confiscating property and natural rights has been done. Compensate them with prodigal consideration that people who have made good may not be impoverished and ruined through the punishment which is to be inflicted on the good, well balanced, law abiding citizens of the country for the weakness and sin of the glutton and the sot. And it is right in line with the kind of reasoning which has brought this impudent legislation upon us, to make those who never countenanced the confiscation and sumptuary law to pay for the theories and fanaticism of those who inflicted it. Such a state of affairs is the result of humoring seemingly well meaning people to proceed with their notions of curing the country of drunkenness. We all deplore drunkenness, but instead of enforcing rigidly the laws which would have taken care of that problem and punished the unworthy and unprincipled, the professional prohibitionist sought to seize the reins of government for self aggrandizement and power, and like the pied piper, soon had a dancing mob of admirers at his heels, turned away completely from the idea of enforcing multitudinous laws already on our statute books. The newer propaganda promised so much more of authority and power to its progenitors and so much more of the idealistic to the lover of betterment, that it went big. Added to these elements, many aided and abetted the cause, not realizing what enactment of its tenets would mean to those to whom liquor is not a curse, but a sustenance and business. Whoever has encouraged the growth of this piece of bigotry, and tolerated its growth, until it put on the leaves of a political machine, should feel heartily ashamed to have been a party to such business. The least they can do now is to put their hands in their pockets and go the limit in compensating our vineyardists. And this is just one phase of trying to make a cracked cup look like an honest-to-God good one, for there is no real compensation possible, all we can do is to hold together the many excellent people who have been encouraged by state and nation in the wine and grape business, until they can readjust the lives disordered by this high-handed brand of legislation.

HOW MUCH BETTER than the petty spirit of trying to make the world be good by law, including those who are good already, would be the directing of energy to getting a market for our produce in Australia and South America, where people clamor for United States and California made goods, and can't find them. Not only have we poor representation there, but it takes months, as things are now, to get in touch with our producers. Golden opportunities like these are lying around everywhere, while bigots battle to better their fellows and enact foolish laws like prohibition has formulated. A destructive program instead of a constructive one is to be deplored.

LET US DO constructive work now that the war is over. We went the limit in digging up money to finish up the war and it was surprising the amount of money that came to light in every community. Now that the tight wads have been shaken up, and before they get in the rut again, let's get busy at our Sonoma County road building program.

FINAL ACCOUNTS FILED

Walter L. Gaige, as administrator of the estate of the late Albert E. Gaige of Glen Ellen, filed his final account and petition for distribution Monday by his attorney, R. L. Thompson. The receipts, according to the reports, aggregated $2,500.75, and disbursements $900.75. The estate consists of Glen Ellen property.

The final report of Eliza Shepard and Willard L. Growell of the estate of the late well known and popular Jack London, was filed in the Superior Court yesterday. It shows receipts aggregating $52,767.50, of which $6,247.39 was from the special administrator and $2,938.30 life insurance. The remainder consists principally of royalties from the famous author's books and film companies which have filmed his stories. The cash balance is $2,343.18.

The real value of the estate is unknown owing to the fact that much of it consists of royalty rights, the value of which are uncertain. The famous author was a prolific writer and has a large number of stories out of which are bringing in a steady income while the royalties from filmed stories are also a feature of the income. Under a recent agreement among the heirs, all this goes to Mrs. Charnian K. London.

MAYOR CLAMPS DOWN

LID ON DANCE

Mayor Chas. Dal Poggetto clamped down the municipal lid on a dancing contingent from Napa which was using Sonoma as a place of merry making, owing to the ban on dancing in Napa where influenza is rampant and where for the third time, masks have been donned. A party was advertised here for this week, but our mayor got busy and wisely put a stop to it.

Dorothy and Ray Hooper, children of the late George Hooper Jr., who died of the influenza in San Francisco, have come to Sonoma to make their home with Mrs. and Miss Goodman on Broadway. The good care and fine climate of Sonoma were believed by the children's grandparents to be just the thing for the little ones. The Hoopers conduct one of the leading down town hotels of the city.

Mrs. E. Eraldi, mother of Mrs. Harry Quartaroli and Mrs. Sam Sebastiani, has been critically ill at her home here.

A fire caused by a defective flue caused some excitement at the Hansen store in Vineburg last Saturday morning but was soon extinguished.

Mysterious fires in the brush, back of Buena Vista and the foothills east of town, puzzled the residents of that section until it came to light that boys smoking bees out of hollow trees for the honey caused the trouble. One fire gained such headway that seven wood choppers were called out to fight it. The boys are to be warned and may be reported to the Probation officer.

Ted Whitlow, the popular baseball player and bank employee of San Francisco, had a relapse from the flu and has been very ill.

HELBERG IS WITH ARMY OF OCCUPATION

Son of Schellville Family Writes to His Folks From Luxembourg.

Fred Helberg Jr., of Battery D, 374 Field Artillery, American Expeditionary Forces, is now with the army of occupation and writes interestingly to his folks from Luxembourg, where he arrived on December fifth.

After enumerating the towns in Belgium and Luxembourg, through which he passed, young Helberg says: "Our next move will be up into Germany. I expect we will be up there about Dec. 15th and stay there for 6 weeks, then it will be, 'lets go home.' I have seen some interesting sights along the way, we traveled in our auto trucks, so we were able to see everything along the road fine and dandy. Belgium is quite a farming country but the Germans stole most of their crops when they left.

In France, near Souzay and Ste. nny, the Germans put in hundreds of acres of grain and vegetables, and the French will have the benefit of these crops. The state of Luxembourg is a farming country also and the land looks good. We passed thru the outskirts of the city of Luxembourg and I must say it is a pretty place. All the people can speak German here, so I get along quite well with them. The people here seem friendly enough but at that I do not think that they care a whole lot to see us here. At that they are glad that the Germans have gone home."

Under date of Nov. 24th which was set apart as "Fathers Day" the son of the well known road master wrote a beautiful letter home from which we will make interesting excerpts in the next issue of the Index-Tribune.

IMPORTANT SALE OF REAL ESTATE. ROCHAT RANCH SOLD TO MR. CHAS. VAN DAMME

The beautiful Rochat ranch was sold to Chas. Van Damme on January 2nd through the agency of W. B. Cause of the Boyes Springs Real Estate Co. for a good round figure.

Mr. Van Damme is the main stockholder of the Richmond-San Rafael ferry system and also largely interested in the Olson-Mahony Lumber Co. of San Francisco. Mr. Van Damme, who has already taken possession of the ranch, has bought a thousand young fruit trees and is planting them to fill in where needed, also has negotiated for three thousand young chicks, as he plans to go into the chicken industry as well as the fruit business. Being a thorough business man and having an interest in Sonoma county now, Mr. Van Damme will use all his efforts toward having good roads, for it will mean a lot to his ferry system as well as to his new home. He will also take up the idea of the late E. Rochat, to make this ranch one of the beauty spots as well as one of the most profitable in Sonoma county. As the Allies said, welcome to our President, so the people of Sonoma say, Welcome, Mr. Van Damme.

Some months ago the Rochat ranch was reported sold, but the deal fell through.

Bert Shepard, whose interesting letter to his grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, appeared in these columns last summer, was not again heard from until recently, when he informed his folks at the London ranch that he had been decorated with a French war cross of honor and expected to be home soon to tell them how it all happened.

James McElney is to begin moving into the corner drug store today. The interior of the store has been in the hands of the painter, Fred Bulotti, this week and is a model store.

LEWIS NO LONGER BASEBALL IDOL

World Series Former Star Now Rated as "Snitcher" in Sporting Column Report.

Duffy Lewis, once the idol of baseball fans, has evidently suffered an awful slump in popularity, for he is roundly execrated in the sporting column of leading San Francisco newspapers and told that he should quit the baseball game forever, now that he is dubbed a stool-pigeon by men of the Navy at Mare Island and baseball fans of the coast. Lewis got in wrong when he changed his rating in the Navy and went over to the intelligence department of the service where he spied on his fellow sailors and officers.

He and his wife were prominent in the Fetters federal case which was commonly referred to as an "entrapment" and they drew into it several men and senior officers in the Navy whom they sought to disgrace and deprive of their credits and shoulder straps. Lewis made so much trouble for these men and their families, whom he had led to believe were his friends, that he has become thoroughly unpopular at the Island. Lewis sought to convict Senior Lieutenant John Chamberlain, U. S. N., who raised himself from an apprentice boy, a man who has been in the Navy for twenty-three years and was executive of the electrical school at Mare Island.

The former baseball star was instrumental in bringing the Mare Island boys to Sonoma Valley resorts all last season and they thought him a good fellow until he went into the business of "snitching". It came to a climax the night of the federal arrest at Fetters Springs when Mrs. Lewis who was a patron, and pretended friend of the proprietors, arranged a little "time" at the dance hall for her Navy friends, which led to the arrest and conviction of the Fetters and serious trouble for many prominent Navy men. Lewis' friends then realized that he had double-crossed them and the sailors were not slow to dub his conduct as very unsportsmanlike.

This is why it is now reported that in the baseball world, Duffy Lewis is done, and is considering going into the automobile business at Fresno.

Thus fall stars in the baseball firmament.

The following clipping, bearing on the part played by Lewis in the attempted court martial of Lieutenant Chamberlain, is taken from a recent issue of the San Francisco News.

"The defense of Senior Lieut. John Chamberlain, U. S. N., directed its pinch hitters at Mr. and Mrs. Geo. (Duffy) Lewis today in an attempt to discredit their testimony which forms the basis of the court martial of this popular lieutenant at the Mare Island Navy yard.

Details of the testimony offered yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis declared she saw Chamberlain intoxicated. A chief yeoman and Lewis are said to have sustained her word. But the defense today was banking on the testimony of three intelligence officers, who are said to have contradicted Mrs. Lewis.

In severe contrast on the island is the popularity of Chamberlain and the unpopularity of the famous baseball star, Lewis.

"Gobs" lined the wharf when Lewis obtained his transfer from the Naval training camp at Mare Island, booing Lewis and crying, "snitcher."

Evidence against Chamberlain was to the effect that he was seen intoxicated at the Fetters Springs resort. Mrs. Lewis, who was at the resort, testified that her husband aided the government in closing the resort and obtaining long sentences and heavy fines for the Fetters—man and wife. Lewis, who started his baseball career with the Oakland Coast league team, has featured as a slugger in four world series. He was in the Navy intelligence department.

Chamberlain was executive officer of the electrical school here until the charges were brought against him."

Mrs. Ernest Lynch, (Ramona Granite) has been suffering from influenza and pneumonia. She has been receiving the best of care from Mrs. Garry Stock, (nee Georgie Andrews) at whose ranch in Lake county she has been since the holidays. The Stocks' moved to Lake county lately.

Dr. Trueblood, a brother of Ellen Trueblood, former High School teacher here, died of the influenza in Berkeley recently.

WHERE WOUNDED MEN YIELD TO DAY DREAMS

Restored to Health and Vigor in Red Cross Convalescent Homes.

The surgeon has extracted the impartially distributed bits of shrapnel from your works. The wounds have healed. The wheels go round again, and the clock ticks.

But it doesn't keep correct time. This business of calling "Time" on the Boche means so many broken clocks nowadays that the master-menders can't keep them on their tables after they're mended. So the question where they shall sit around while they're being regulated looms large.

The Red Cross answers that question with its convalescent homes. It has six of these in operation. A suitable place is found—sometimes donated—and management and equipment are provided by the Red Cross, while the Army has furnished discipline and a never-failing supply of convalescents.

These homes mean that men who are scarcely hospital subjects, yet who can by no means go back to their duties, have a place that does what "home" does for the French or English soldier, what "home" does for any one, in fact, when the doctor goes through.

You know. He says: "You're all right now. It's only a matter of nursing and food."

But you know he's only looking at the works he's tinkered, and that the soul within you is grouching as it never did when the body was down and out. It wants something, and it doesn't get it pretty quick the works are going to get gummed again. You know your mother could find out what that dog-gone thing is right away and hand it to you on a plate. But General Pershing won't let you go to her. * * * And the War Department won't let her come to you.

Then you're taken to a Red Cross convalescent home—and there is the very thing you wanted! But you couldn't describe it even then to save your life.

It is a bit of coddling, and pretty surroundings, and women's faces, and light laughter and time to play and all that sort of thing. It is forgetting the crash of war and remembering that there are pleasant, soft voices. It's even such things as gaily-flowered sofa pillows to lean into a corner and make a nice sitting place while you read and smoke and alk. It's slippers instead of trench boots, or day-dreams in place of the nightmare of killing.

NO SEALS SOLD THIS YEAR.

The customary sale of Red Cross Christmas seals will not be held this year. It seemed best to both the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association to unite in the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call to reduce the number of appeals to the public for contributions. There will be no lessening of activities by the National Tuberculosis Association through this arrangement, as the Red Cross War Council has appropriated $2,500,000 for anti-tuberculosis work in 1919 in lieu of the money that ordinarily would be raised by a Christmas Seal Campaign. However, every person joining the Red Cross during the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call will be awarded ten seals to be used as heretofore.

ADVICE TO "FLU" CONVALESCENTS

SPAIN AND ENGLAND REPORT INCREASE IN TUBERCULOSIS AFTER INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC.

U. S. Public Health Service Warns Public Against Tuberculosis. One Million Cases Tuberculosis in United States—Each a Source of Danger.

Influenza Convalescents Should Have Lungs Examined—Colds Which Hang On Often Beginning of Tuberculosis. No Cause for Alarm if Tuberculosis Is Recognized Early—Potent Medicines Not to Be Trusted.

* * * * * Beware tuberculosis after influenza. No need to worry if you take precautions in time. * * * * * Don't diagnose your own condition. Have your doctor examine your lungs several times at monthly intervals. Build up your strength with right living, good food and plenty of fresh air. * * * * * Don't waste money on patent medicines advertised to cure tuberculosis. * * * * * Become a fresh-air crank and enjoy life. * * * * *

Washington, D. C. (Special)—According to a report made to the United States Public Health Service, the epidemic of influenza in Spain has already caused an increase in the prevalence and deaths from pulmonary tuberculosis. A similar association has recently made by Sir Arthur Newsholme, the chief medical officer of the English public health service, in his analysis of the tuberculosis death rate in England.

In order that the people of the United States may profit by the experience of other countries Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the United States Public Health Service has just issued a warning emphasizing the need of special precautions at the present time. "Experience seems to indicate," says the Surgeon General, "that persons whose resistance has been weakened by an attack of influenza are peculiarly susceptible to tuberculosis. With millions of its people recently affected with influenza this country now offers conditions favoring the spread of tuberculosis."

One Million Consumptives in the United States.

"Then you consider this a serious menace?" was asked. "In my opinion it is, though I hasten to add it is distinctly one against which the people can guard. So far as one can estimate there are at present about one million cases of tuberculosis in the United States. There is unfortunately no complete census available to show exactly the number of tuberculous persons in each state despite the fact that most of the states have made the disease reportable. In New York city, where reporting has been in force for many years, over 35,000 cases of tuberculosis are registered with the Department of Health. Those familiar with the situation believe that the addition of unrecognized and unreported cases would make the number nearer 50,000. The very careful health survey conducted during the past two years in Framingham, Mass., revealed 200 cases of tuberculosis in a population of approximately 15,000. If these proportions hold true for the United States as a whole they would indicate that about one in every hundred persons is tuberculous. Each of these constitutes a source of danger to be guarded against."

DOUBLE IDENTITY LED TO ARREST

Man Arrested Here For Diamond Robbery Proves He Is Not Much Wanted Thief.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan on advice from Burns detective operatives made a search of the valley last Sunday for a much wanted diamond thief and arrested a man, giving the name of Green and answering almost every description of the suspect at the Zeifman resort in El Verano. He was the only boarder there and his presence seemed a little bit unusual at this season of the year. In height and weight, he tallied with the description furnished Ryan and even bore a scar from ear to neck like Alphonse Perrin, wanted in Los Angeles for grand larceny. He was therefore taken to Santa Rosa, questioned and detained. The outcome of the matter as reported by a Santa Rosa paper was as follows:

"Facing one of the most remarkable cases of double identities that has come to light in Sonoma county in many years the local authorities were compelled to acknowledge themselves baffled and defeated Monday when Al Stahl called at the county jail and after seeing D. L. Green, who had been detained since Saturday, assured the officers that he was not Alphonse Perrin, wanted in Los Angeles county for a sensational diamond robbery on the night of January 3rd. Stahl knows Perrin real well and he admitted that Green had a most remarkable resemblance to the printed description issued by the Los Angeles sheriff's office, but was not the man wanted. What was more, the San Francisco officers phoned that they had checked up the story told by Green to the district attorney and local officers Saturday night and found that his movements could be accounted for exactly as he said.

The description sent out by the sheriff of Los Angeles county follows:

Age 23, 5 feet 9 inches, 150 pounds eyes, reddish brown, hair, brown, complexion, medium, teeth, very good sharp and prominent nose, eye-brows joined across nose, scar under left ear, extending down neck, nail of right index finger mutilated from accident, native of Switzerland, and speaks with decided French accent.

The description of the jewels taken include gold and platinum chains and velvet neck bands set with various sizes and shapes of diamonds valued at from $3,500, $2,500, $1,200 and $1,000 and other pieces of jewelry of various kinds and values, ranging down to rings worth $250 each, and aggregating in all over $10,000, and in addition $1,200 in cash and checks brooches and pins of smaller value."

Perrin is alleged to have robbed the residence of Mrs. Frederick Wilson Seawell, Palmdrive, Altadena. The jewels were taken from a safe in her library. There is a $1,000 reward for Perrin's capture.

TRAIL OF DEAD ACROSS DESERT

Four Million Starving and Destitute People Plead With America

RELIEF MUST BE IMMEDIATE

Women and Children in Terrible Plight After Years of Wandering About Deserts in Syria and Asia Minor

Three million people have died from massive starvation in Armenia, Syria and Asia Minor. Four hundred thousand orphans are actually crying for food, four million starving people are destitute and pleading for a chance to rehabilitate themselves. America must help these people. Will you be one to answer this appeal or will you allow a Christian people to die of starvation?

Four million starving and destitute people are looking to America to save them from death by starvation.

Four hundred thousand orphans, their fathers massacred, their mothers dead from starvation, are crying for food. Their emaciated bodies are pitiful sights, the flesh hangs on their bones like rags.

These unfortunates are the victims of Turkish cruelties and deportations. In three years more than a million Armenians, Syrians and Greeks have perished in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Russian Caucasus and Asia Minor. They have been driven from their homes, the men massacred, the women outraged, the girls sold into worse than slavery. Then these helpless beings have been deported by the Turks—sent into the deserts to die.

For three years now the remnants of these once prosperous people have wandered from place to place, beaten, abused, starved; hundreds of thousands have perished and their bones mark the course of their trail across the Mesopotamian deserts. Never in the history of the world has such wanton slaughter and cruelty been practiced.

Appeal to America.

What is left of these people now appeal to America to save them. The American Committee for Relief in the Near East will conduct a campaign for funds this month. It is necessary to raise a minimum of $30,000,000 immediately to relieve distress, clothe the half-clad people and help to make them self-supporting until the next harvest.

The suffering of these people is beyond description. Little children have seen their fathers and mothers killed. In one province in Syria 80,000 persons are known to have died from starvation. Armenian children have starved until they have lost their vocal powers.

In Syrian villages starved people race with dogs to garbage cans to secure food. In other villages dogs and cats have been eaten. In Beirut, Syria, 200 to 300 deaths a day from starvation and typhus are recorded. In Urumia, Persia, word has come that 200,000 Christian refugees are absolutely destitute. At Sojnuk, fifty miles away, 10,000 are dying of starvation.

At Mosul 10,000 destitute refugees, women and children are in a pitiful condition, according to official dispatches from Teheran to the State Department at Washington and given publicity through William Phillips, Acting Secretary of State.

The cable message also states that starvation is increasing daily and cities conditions at Khoy, Salmas, Urumia are beginning to deteriorate.

On all sides there is utter misery and starvation.

In Desperate Plight.

At Tabriz, Persia, 30,000 exiles, victims of Turkish deportations, are destitute and in desperate plight. People are dropping dead of starvation in the streets of Teheran, and babies have been found clinging to the bodies of lifeless mothers. Relief workers report that food and funds are needed imperatively, that thousands are dying daily in all parts of Asia Minor.

President Wilson has issued a proclamation calling upon the people of America to subscribe to the Armenian-Syrian relief fund. The Red Cross has officially approved the campaign. Churches all over the country are helping and now the great body of American people are asked to help relieve the suffering of these Christian people who have nowhere else to turn for help.

Already relief workers who are on the ground are doing their utmost but they are hampered through lack of funds. There must be an immediate response or 4,000,000 people will perish.

The Ruthless Turk.

Armenia was the first nation to embrace Christianity. Its people were industrious and happy. Then it came under Turkish control. The Turks openly boasted they would exterminate the Armenians. They massacred the men and deported the women and children. They confiscated their homes and farms, outraged the girls, mutilated the children and tortured all classes.

What is left of these abused people are anxious to return to their desolated homes. They are anxious to start life again and the people of America can make it possible for them to live and prosper. It only requires $5 a month to save a life over there. America millions could never be put to a better or more humanitarian use. Armenia stretches forth her hands to America to save her. Will the people respond?
